

Please safeguard free speech and our democracy by insuring that stations using public airways promote balanced discourse rather than one-sided partisanship. For example airing the "documentary" Stolen Honor as "fact" without balancing it with a different view is blatantly partisan.

Do not cave in to Big Media!

Sincerely,
Jean m. McMann